

Samaha Islamic Center

Samaha Islamic Center is a place of worship and it provides services to the Muslim communities that live in Scott county, Carver county, and its surroundings. The Muslim community often come to the center to practice their religion but there can be a trip generation that may occur during the usage of the center.

The center anticipates a trip generation of 52-100 cars per week on different times that this calculation is based on current evaluation as well as future state which the center foresees a community growth in the next 10 years. Below is a detailed table that explains the trips during the week or the peak times. The center has two entry/exit pathways to Holmes St and Fuller St that ease the traffic.
